

The 21st Century Human Values Forum 2023

“Redefining Who or What We Are: Human Nature and Ethics”

27-29 Oct. 2023 , Andong Republic of Korea

Forum Concept

The 21st Century Human Values Forum started in 2013 and has now reached its 10th anniversary. Looking back on the history and the past forums and expecting changes and innovations in the new forums for the next ten years.

We are redefining the spiritual culture to develop cherished humanism and stabilize industries and communities under the great cause of Humanity, aiming to contribute to the peace and coexistence of humankind, despite the ever changing shifts in politics, economies, and society.

The plenary session will hold sessions to present and share each city's efforts, including improving the quality of life, education, and welfare, while aiming for a sustainable city. Please contact me if you are interested in a city.
